

I support legislation that reduces/eliminates unrequested, telephone solicitations at my home. We're inundated by advertising 24/7; a little privacy at home is welcome relief. In my humble opinion, any solicitation from other than a charitable organization should be illegal. Thank you for your time and consideration.